

You are warmly invited to a memorial observance in honor of

John Kendall

August 30, 1917 – January 6, 2011

Saturday, April 23, 2:00 p.m.
First Unitarian Universalist Congregation
4001 Ann Arbor-Saline Road
Ann Arbor, MI 48103

If you have written thoughts or memories, or images you would like to share, there will be a place to display them. Please send these by April 1 to Christopher Kendall, 3435 Cottontail Lane, Ann Arbor, MI 48103. Also, we are planning that the memorial will include a community performance of the Bach Double, and we invite you to bring your instrument and participate.

Following the memorial, please join us for a reception, when we can gather to greet each other and share reminiscences.

We very much look forward to seeing you!

Bill and Nancy Foster
Stephen and Yoshiko Kendall
Christopher Kendall and Susan Schilperoort

It would help us in planning if you are able to let us know by April 1 that you intend to come (and if you plan to play the Bach). Please email ss.ck@sbcglobal.net

For those needing a place to stay while you are in Ann Arbor, a block of rooms has been reserved for April 22-24 at:

The Fairfield Inn by Marriott
3285 Boardwalk
Ann Arbor, MI 48108
(734) 995-5200
Reservations: 1-800-321-2211

There are three types of room options available: 2 double beds, 1 queen bed or 1 king bed. The rate for these rooms is $79 per night. This rate is guaranteed until the reservation cut-off date of March 23, 2011 at 12:01 AM. When you call, please let the agent know that you are with the Kendall Memorial Block. Guests are responsible for their own room, tax and incidental charges.